The Dutch company Reginox is the market leader among manufacturers of granite sinks. With state-of-the-art machinery, they produce over 150 different sinks for national and international kitchen markets. Thanks to constant innovations, not only in production processes but also in terms of the environment, Reginox holds a leading position in the global market.

The granite sink Reginox Amsterdam 1000.0 with a drainer and a basin is a sink designed primarily for larger kitchen spaces, as it is a sink with dimensions of 100cm. The design of the sink is simple, smooth, minimalist, suitable for almost any kitchen.

The sink has a very practical design. The additional basin is intended for rinsing fruits and vegetables, thawing meat, or storing small dishes. The larger main deep compartment allows for easy washing of large dishes and food.

The largest part of the day is spent in the kitchen, and a significant part of the work is related to the kitchen sink. Thanks to the granite sink with a drainer and a basin, your kitchen will have a modern look and become a place where you will joyfully prepare meals for the whole family.

The advantage and benefit of Reginox products is not only their high-quality material and design, but also the smooth surface of the sinks, making their maintenance easier. Less dirt accumulates on the smooth surface. Reginox sinks are resistant to impacts, scratches, and other mechanical damage. Key features of the Reginox Amsterdam 1000.10 kitchen sink.
